Employment Privacy

(Extract from the Privacy Policy – version 2.0 August 2016)

St Peter's Anglican Primary School is bound by the Australian Privacy Principles (APP) contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act.

The School may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to the School's operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing school environment.

Collection of Personal Information

Personal information is collected from applicants and contractors, the School's primary purpose of collection is to assess and (if successful) to engage the applicant or contractor, as the case may be. The purposes for which the School uses personal information of job applicants and contractors include:

- in administering the individual's employment or contract, as the case may be;
- for insurance purposes;
- seeking donations and marketing for the School; and
- to satisfy the School's legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation.

Use of Personal Information

This information is used to fill open positions within the School as the need arises. Information provided to the School in respect to an application for employment will be kept by the School for a period of 1 year, after which the documentation of unsuccessful applicants will be properly disposed of. Applications will not be returned to the applicant, unless specifically requested in writing.

Disclosure of Information

From time to time, it may be necessary to disclose personal information in the course of the employment process. An example of this may be contacting the referees supplied to provide work related references.

Management and Security of personal information

The School has in place steps to protect the personal information the School holds from misuse, interference and loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and password access rights to computerised records.

Under the Privacy Act and the Health Records Act, the Australian Privacy Principles and Health Privacy Principles do not apply to an employee records. As a result, the Schools Privacy Policy does not apply to the School's treatment of an employee record, where treatment is directly related to a current or former employment relationship between the School and employment.
